

Woman of Wisdom and Passion

Nomination Form for DKG, British Columbia, Award

DKG (Women Educators Society International) is a professional society of women educators in Canada, the United States, Europe, Latin America, Iceland and Japan. Our mission is:

To promote professional and personal growth of women educators and excellence in education.

Nominating a Woman of Wisdom and Passion

The successful candidate(s) will be a woman who:

- has worked diligently to improve the life of others in the local, national, or international community.
- has inspired others through her work and the passion she has for her work.
- does not have to be a member of Delta Kappa Gamma Society International.
- is a resident of British Columbia.

Candidate: _____

Nominator: _____

Seconders: _____

Please complete the following information about the candidate:

Note: Point form is required. Use a separate page as required keeping the same format.

Community Involvement:

Date(s) _____ People or groups impacted: _____

Description of the project or activities: _____

Briefly outline the key reasons you are supporting this nomination. You can include other awards or recognition earned, special accomplishments or honours. Point form is required.

Nominator's signature: _____ Date: _____

Please ensure that the nominee knows you are nominating her and is in agreement with the nomination and willing to have a press release distributed concerning the nomination. Forms must be submitted to the BC DKG President, Helen Ballam, hballam@telus.net